SPONSOR’S DUTIES

BEFORE CURSILLO:

1. Notify your Ultreya Coordinator and the person in charge of Pre-Cursillo IMMEDIATELY of any changes in your candidate’s status, such as change of address. Etc.
2. Obtain palanca letters from family, close friends, and other Cursillistas and deliver them to the Cursillo team Thursday night.
3. Please let your candidate know that the cost of his or her weekend has been paid (approximately $175 per person). He or she will be given an opportunity to “pay it forward” by contributing to help defray the cost of future weekends. Cost should not be a deterrent to anyone wishing to attend Cursillo.

DURING CURSILLO:

1. Registration for the weekend is from 6:30 pm to 7:30 pm. Pick up your candidate in order to arrive with your candidate within that time frame. Remain with your candidate until he/she is registered, then leave – do not linger. Do not give hugs to team members or other sponsors.
2. Attend Holy Hour if available.
3. Assist the candidate’s family while the candidate is attending Cursillo should an emergency arise.
4. Attend the closing and provide transportation to your candidate’s home.

AFTER CURSILLO:

Keep in close contact with your candidate following their Cursillo. Encourage him/her to persevere in the movement. Show as much interest and concern for him/her as you did before Cursillo. Remember that you have “made a friend, you have become a friend, and you have brought that friend to Christ.”

SO, YOU WANT TO SPONSOR

... a Cursillo[®] candidate?

Cursillo is a powerful tool of the Holy Spirit. It can profoundly change a person's spiritual life!

But, you know that. You attended Cursillo.

And, now you want to sponsor and send someone to Cursillo, just as your sponsor did for you. As a "babe chick," or brand new Cursillista, you can and are encouraged to be a sponsor, with the support and guidance of an experienced Cursillista.

Sponsoring a candidate to Cursillo can be a powerful and rewarding experience. What better way to show your gratitude for such a gift than to share it with another child of God! Every Cursillista should do it, at least once, preferably each time you are led by the Holy Spirit to do so. Thank you for being willing to answer God's call once again and to "make a friend, be a friend and bring that friend to Christ!"

But sponsoring a candidate to Cursillo is not child's play. It is serious work, serious apostleship and should not be done haphazardly.

For that reason, if you want to sponsor a candidate, you should pay attention to the principles that underlie good sponsorship and you must adhere to some rules and guidelines that govern sponsorship.

If you do, then your labor of love to send a Christian leader to our Lord's Cursillo will indeed be rewarding for your candidate ... and for you!

Principles of Cursillo Sponsorship

- Cursillo is not a means for a candidate to return to the Catholic faith. Candidates must already be practicing their faith. Cursillo is not a place to heal people battling mental health, addiction or substance abuse, grief or emotional trauma, emotional instability, failing marriage, or other personal issues. Help for all that is to be found elsewhere. Consider any health issues your candidate may have. Please approach your candidate's pastor if you should invite him/her to Cursillo.
- Because you are about to embark on the work of the Holy Spirit, "pray without ceasing!" 1 Thess. 5:17. Pray before you approach your candidate. Pray while you suggest Cursillo to your candidate. Pray relentlessly and offer hardships and sacrifice (i.e., Palanca) between the time your candidate signs an application and the end of the Closing on Sunday night of the Cursillo. Pray for your "babe chicks" during their Fourth Day that they, too, will grow in love of the Lord, aided by taking advantage of the tools of the Cursillo movement - namely, group reunion and ultreya.
- Cursillo is more than just a beautiful experience to be shared. There are many other wonderful retreat experiences, such as parish retreats and Christ Renews His Parish. Cursillo is a movement for leaders. It strives to inspire leaders in various environments to be not just Christian disciples, but also to be Christian leaders and apostles.
- Candidates, therefore, should be leaders in their environments, whether small environments such as the family or workplace, or large environments such as business, government, and civic community.
- Sponsorship is the work of the Holy Spirit. Be His instrument, but try not to get in the way of what He is trying to do.

Rules of Cursillo Sponsorship

1. Your candidate must be a practicing Catholic, attending Mass regularly and eligible otherwise to receive the sacraments.
2. Each candidate must complete the Cursillo candidate application. If your candidate is married, both the husband and the wife must apply to attend Cursillo. Remember, you cannot guarantee your candidate(s) that their application will be accepted, because weekends have filled up in the past. Application forms are available at www.orlandocursillo.org (be sure to use most current form).
3. If the candidate's spouse is not Catholic, he or she must attend the comparable weekend in his/her faith (e.g., Episcopal or Lutheran Cursillo or one of the ecumenical weekends, Walk to Emmaus or Tres Dias). A member of Secretariat can assist with this.
4. As sponsor:
 - Live the Cursillo movement yourself, by grouping and attending ultreya regularly.
 - Answer - truthfully! - any questions your candidate asks about the Cursillo (trying, of course, not to spoil surprises).
 - Complete the required sponsor form for each candidate and obtain, on the form, the signature of the candidate's pastor (and pastor's comments, if any) and the signature of the Ultreya Coordinator for the candidate's parish (if there is one) and of any co-sponsors. Co-sponsors are highly recommended!
 - Get the completed application(s) and sponsor form(s) delivered to the OrlCursillo@gmail.com which can also be found on the orlandocursillo.org website.
 - Respond promptly to the letter from Secretariat notifying you that your candidate(s) are accepted, when you receive it, confirming that your candidate will or will not attend the upcoming weekend.
 - Gather Palanca letters for your candidate(s) from family (spouse's letter, for sure), the candidate's close friends (if appropriate and comfortable), the pastor (if you can) and other Cursillistas. If sponsoring a couple, you are on your own for the husband. For the wife, the husband can help, but it is still your responsibility to make sure the appropriate letters are obtained.
 - Make sure your candidate knows what to bring and not to bring on the weekend (i.e., towels, sheets, pillows, etc. - yes; cameras - no). Encourage (but do not force) your candidate to leave the cell phone at home, in order to get the full message of the Cursillo, assuring him or her that family will have emergency contact information.
 - Deliver your candidate to San Pedro Center on Thursday night of the Cursillo, no earlier than 6:30 PM and no later than 7:30 PM, and do not let your candidate drive himself/herself to the Cursillo.
 - Deliver all Palanca letters for your candidate to a team member at San Pedro Center, preferably when you drop your candidate off on Thursday, but no later than 11 AM on Saturday of the Cursillo (use the "DeColores" mailbox on St. Francis Way at San Pedro).
 - Stay in touch with your candidate's family during the weekend. Make sure they have the emergency contact information, for both you and the team member with the emergency phone. Let family know that the candidate probably won't return home until late Sunday night.
 - Attend the closing, which begins approximately at 6 PM on Sunday night at San Pedro, and remember to take your candidate, now "babe chick," home. No cameras should be used.

- When sponsoring a couple, you will be bringing the husband to his wife's closing. It is recommended that your candidate's husband NOT bring children to the closing. Encourage the husband to limit what he tells his wife about the weekend, if possible, to preserve some of the surprises. You might want to hold onto most of his Palanca until his wife attends her Cursillo.
- Attend the Fourth Day Reunion with your candidate, at a place and date and time (usually a Saturday morning at a parish hall in the Orlando area) that will be given to your candidate, posted on the orlandocursillo.org website and likely announced at the closing.
- (LAST, BUT NOT LEAST) Help your candidate find or form a group reunion and encourage your candidate to attend group weekly. Encourage your candidate to attend Ultreya monthly.

May our Lord bless your efforts ... and your candidates!
